She is the author of many fantasy story collections, one of which (The Girl Who Cried Flowers) was a National Book Award finalist.."I want to see them," the captain insists.."That's fascinating, isn't it?" the Usher concluded, after setting forth further facts about this remarkable department store.."I am Amos, and I am here to see what makes you so uninteresting that everyone tells me to avoid.207."What are you doing up this early?" Byline (or "I") is the same species of creature as the Kindly Editor or the Good Doctor, who appear from time to time in these pages. That is, she is a form of shorthand. When Byline rewrites story X, that doesn't mean that I?the real, historical personage?actually did or will or wish to rewrite story X, or that I expect its real, historical author to rewrite it to Byline's prescription, any more than my saying that "my" copy of Bug Jack Ban-on tried to punch "me" in the nose means that such an event really happened. Pauline Kael's Movie Loon is another such fiction; these little creatures we send scurrying about the page are not our real, live selves, and their exploits are dictated more by the exigencies of our form than by a desire for personal glory.."Getting round behind B Company, and up over spur Four-nine-three," Colman suggested as he studied the image..Nolan lay back and waited for sleep to come, shutting out the sound of the drums, the sight of the shadowy shape beside him. I drove home reflecting what pleasant and restful company she was. A man could do far worse than her for a companion. She stared up through the shadows with slitted eyes unblinking above high cheekbones, her thin brown body relaxed and immobile. Hard to believe that only moments ago this same body had been a writhing, wriggling coil of insatiable appetite, gripping and enfolding him until he was drained and spent.."Barry," Barry said. You probably didn't see them on the way in, but you saw the models. They're very light, supercritical, and designed for this atmosphere. Lou said it was like flying a bathtub, but it flew. And it's a skQI, almost an art. Lou practiced for three years on the best simulators we could build and still had to rely on things you can't learn in a simulator. And he barely got us down in one piece. We didn't noise it around, but it was a damn close thing. Lou was young; so was Cantrell. They were both fresh from flying. They flew every day, they had the feel for it. They were tops." She slumped back into her chair. "I haven't flown anything but trainers for eight years."..labor is coming to fruition. Because of the angle, he can no longer keep the ship in view from a distance but must track it closely. November 21 and 22, violent storms: the ship is dashed upward by waves, falls again, visible only intermittently; it takes him five hours to pass through two days of real time.
